RG104 E-1 Box 184

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., February 2, 1894.

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

On account of the redundancy of the five-cent nickel pieces, as shown by the amount presented to the Treasury for redemption, the Secretary has directed that the coinage of such pieces be suspended until otherwise instructed. You will, therefore, govern yourself accordingly.

I will thank you to inform me how soon you will require another invoice of gold bullion from New York, as it is probable that it will be necessary to continue a heavy coinage of gold for the next two months.

Respectfully yours,

R. E. Preston

Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 184

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
February 2, 1894

Superintendent Mint U.S.,
Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

On account of the redundancy of the five-cent nickel pieces, as shown by the amount presented to the Treasury for redemption, the Secretary has directed that the coinage of such pieces be suspended until otherwise instructed. You will, therefore, govern yourself accordingly.

I will thank you to inform me how soon you will require another invoice of gold bullion from New York, as it is probable that it will be necessary to continue a heavy coinage of gold for the next two months.

Respectfully yours,
R.E. Preston
Director of the Mint.